

It would be an absolute atrocity to consider the rights of businesses to invade my right to privacy so that they can make a buck. I clearly expect the government of this country to protect me from terrorists and any business who feel they have the right to call me on a phone I pay for in a house I pay for when I DO NOT WANT THEM TO CALL ME.